A Happy Day

One day a group of rabbits and young dogs were walking on a country road. They were picking and eating plural fruit and plural fruit as they went along.

"Mmmm," one bunny said. "These are better than sweets!"

One pup started chasing like moths. Another just rolled in the plural flowers. One bunny found 4 one cent plural on the side of the road.

What a wonderful day, they thought. This is even better than the fun occasion they went to celebrate the birth of the new duck newborns on the farm.

"Much better than when we went to the big bigger than towns," one said. "There was may too much traffic there!"

These bunnies and puppies were having too good of a time. There could be no more than one of the same of this happy day!
