Christmas Miracle

Today, on the _____ Number of _____ Month, I went _____ Verb - Present ends in ING downstairs to see if I had any presents. I looked under the tree and only had one present with my name on it. It was _____ Adjective. I was _____ Verb - Present ends in ING until my parents came down _____ Number hours later and asked me what was wrong. I didn't answer them because they should know why I was so _____ Adjective and I even made a list for them since I wouldn't even _____ Verb to them:

1. _____ First Name of a Person got like _____ Number presents and I got none!

2. I gave you a list of all the things I wanted and you practically _____ Verb - Past Tense me!

_____

3. I GOT NO PRESENTS AND I FEEL _____ Repeat Last Verb - Past Tense !!!

The they told me I did have a present right under the tree. I look under and there was one smallish sized _____ Noun and I remembered that there was a present for me. I guess I was _____ Verb - Present ends in ING so much that I forgot about it. My mom _____ Verb - Past Tense my tears as I _____ Adverb opened up the _____ Noun and there it was: an iPhone 5! I was literally screaming and just as my dad told me to be quiet, he handed me an _____ Noun. I asked her what it was and she told me to open it. And there it was again: tickets to _____ Favorite Band! I continued my screaming from before and neither my mom or dad told me to be quiet.

This

was the best Christmas ever!
