one blustery day

it was windy outside,so cold it scared Determiner off of me.my friends say i am because it is actually super sunny outside.my was afraid i was going mad so she took me to the for a checkup.she comfirmed that i was .i went home that night and looked outside and saw my moms tree get blown away.i personally think it is my friends who are crazy.for dinner that night we had something disgusting.i thought i was green beans and steak but my mom insisted that it was and .everyone here is officially crazy.
