Christmas Season

Once Thanksgiving is over and everyone is full from eating all of the Noun, people get into the holiday spirit. Houses and stores begin to put up all of their Christmas decorations, from lights to snowflakes to even inflatable Noun. It's the time of year to be Noun - Plural and kind, and people to be happy to give gifts not just Verb - Past Tense them. Kids will write a letter to Santa, telling him why they have been so Adjective, and include their wish list. Drinking hot liquid, ice-skating, and decorating a Noun are just a few of the ways to get into the holiday season! Once Christmas Eve comes the children snuggle in their beds hoping that Santa will come and eat their Noun - Plural and leave Noun - Plural all around the world, leaving Noun - Plural for all of the nice children, spreading Christmas cheer for another year.
