Twitter Wars

Billionaires will be billionaires. Yesterday, _____ Proper Noun called out Donald Trump on Twitter and, to be honest, got his _____ Adjective mouth shut by the Donald. What started as a _____ Adjective dare from Cuban quickly became an all-out bashing from both sides. After one million dollars was put _____ Preposition the table for Sandy victims, Trump brushed aside the number and even questioned _____ Proper Noun worth after his first television show ("The Benefactor") flopped. Trump even managed to accuse _____ Proper Noun of copying "The Apprentice," then remarked how MLB wanted nothing to do with Cuban. Cuban, _____ Adverb defeated, tried to counteract with the success of "Shark Tank," but Trump went for the jugular by bringing up the _____ Adjective lawsuit by the previous owners of the Dallas _____ Proper Noun - Plural against _____ Proper Noun. This round goes to Trump.
