During the holidays, more _____ Adjective go back home to visit their rocks than at any other time. Between Christmas and saint patricks day, the airlines pack the tvs in like sardines in a/an betty Crocker. There are a lot of wiked "no frill" airlines that will take you _____ Adjective disney land to my house for only 25 dollars. These airlines do not give you any papers. And you can only take 7 pieces of luggage. They also have smaller chairs, and you often have to sit on someone else's head. It is very soft to travel during the holidays, but it is worth it to make your trees happy. Don't forget to make your apples early.
