Fresh Prince of Bel-Air

Now, this is a story all about how my life got upside down, and I liked to take a minute-just si right there, I'll tell you how I became the of a town called In West, born and raised, on the playground were I spent most of my days- chillin' out maxin', relaxin' all cool, and a shootin' some Preposition or subordinating conjunction outside of the school, when a couple of, who were up to no good, startin' causin trouble in my neighborhood. I got in one little fight, and my got scared, she said "You're movin' with your auntie and uncle in Proper

Iverb - Past Tense and Iverb - Past Tense with her day after day, but she packed me with my suitcas and sent me on my way. She gave me a kiss, and then she gave me my ticket. I put my Walkman on and said "I might as well kick it".
First class, yo this is bad! Drinking Adjective Out of a champagne glass, is this what the people of Proper Noun live like? Hm, this might be all right.
But wait I hear they're, wine and all that, is the type of place for this cool cat? I don't think so, I'll see when I get there, I hope they're prepared for the Prince of Proper Noun .

Well, the plane verb - Past Tense and when I came out, there was a who looked like a cop standing there with my name out. I ain't trying to get arrested, I just got here! I sprang with quickness and lightning, disappeared.
I for a cab and when it came near, the license plate said "FRESH" and it had dice in the mirror. If anything, I can say this cab is rare. But I thought "Naw, forget it. Yo homes to"
I pulled up the house about 7 or 8, and I yelled to the cabbie, "Yo homes, smell ya later." I looked at my Noun, I was finally there.
