Winter

It was a snowy and cold day in Naia Green. Snow covered the ground making everything look Adjective and Adjective. The Welcomers were at the Welcome Mat, all huddling around in their snowsuits with their hot cuppas, making sure to offer a warm seat and a friendly Verb - Present ends in S to those new to Furcadia.

The Eventers were at the Eventers Enclave, Verb - Present ends in ING around and making smores or throwing trout or Noun - Plural at each other with a Adverb SPLAT!
