Our Smak Family

My Adjective family is such a Noun. Dad loves old Adjective Noun and foreign olive oil. I think my dad would love to Verb - Base Form his own olives and press his own Noun. Dad would call his oil Polish olive oilski. Dad is an Adjective Noun and gets up with the chickens. Mom, on the other hand is a Adjective Noun. Both chickens and owls are birds of a feather. Dad has Adverb taken an interest in cooking. But he gets Verb - Base Form if we don't come Verb - Base Form to the dinner table and always says: "I'm never cooking again". Mom can be a very good cook but Noun keeps her busy. Dad is very good to his family. He always puts Noun in mom and, sometimes, Theresa's car. Mark and Tom are young men and can Verb - Base Form their own gas. Dad also does the Adjective loads of laundry, keeping mom, Mark, Tom, and Theresa supplied with Adjective Noun and wash cloths forever. We love that about dad! Mom loves her family very much. She supports us but would like us to be more Verb - Base Form in cleaning the house. Theresa can do better keeping her room clean and organized. But Theresa is a hard Sephora work and a social Noun and doesn't seem to have the time. Tom loves his video games. He also spreads Noun at work. Mark works very hard at Adjective Noun. He also likes to visit Babci and Dzia Dzia. When I grow up I want to be just like my kids.
