

When Snapperdappers Attack

1. Noun
2. Noun - Plural
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
4. Preposition
5. Adjective
6. Preposition
7. Noun
8. Interjection
9. Verb - Past Tense
10. Adverb
11. Noun
12. Conjunction
13. Adverb
14. Adjective
15. Noun - Plural
16. Noun
17. Interjection
18. Conjunction
19. Verb - Past Tense

When Snapperdappers Attack

The Snapperdapper is a very rare Noun. It only lives in Noun - Plural and lakes. One day I was

Verb - Present ends in ING Preposition a lake and a bright Adjective Snapperdapper jumped Preposition onto the Noun. Interjection!!! It scared me so much I fell into the water!!

BAM!!! Right when I hit the water a whole swarm of Snapperdappers Verb - Past Tense me. So I

Adverb grabbed a nearby Noun to defend myself. The snapperdappers were too strong so I had to swim away! I swam and swam Conjunction, they were Adverb fast and caught me before I even got 10 Adjective feet! I was doomed until I realized all the Snapperdappers aren't after me, they were after my Noun - Plural!!! They ate everything but my Noun!! So I had to get out of the water and run as fast as could until I got home! It was so embarrassing because everyone saw me running around like a chicken with its head cut off. Interjection! And on top of that my crush was on a picnic right behind me and saw the whole thing! Later that week at school she laughed at me Conjunction said I

Verb - Past Tense like a girl.