

How to Have an Awful Day

1. Adjective
2. Preposition
3. Common Indefinite Pronoun
4. Noun
5. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
6. Adverb
7. Noun
8. Preposition
9. Present Tense Verb
10. Interjection
11. Conjunction
12. Interjection
13. Common Indefinite Pronoun
14. Adjective
15. Conjunction
16. Adverb

How to Have an Awful Day

To start off your awful day, make sure that you wake up at 9:00. This will ensure that you are late for school, and will send you into panic mode. After that, grab Adjective clothes from Preposition your closet, so that you don't match. Once you get to school, Common Indefinite Pronoun of the Noun will laugh at you. While you are Verb - Present ends in ING Adverb, try to get hit by a Noun. You could just run into a closed door. That could be fun. No one would be able to contain their laughter. Preposition, try to Present Tense Verb random words in the middle of class. For example, Interjection, Conjunction Interjection would be an amazing example. This will make class fun, and make sure that Common Indefinite Pronoun of your teachers hate you. The day should pass by pretty quickly after all of this fun. One last thing you should do to make your awful day complete is to miss the bus on the way home. That will ensure that you will have a Adjective walk home. Conjunction make sure that when you do choose to have this awful day, that it's raining and will make you miserable! Adverb, this should be a fantastic day.