Niko

When I was ten years old I got a letter from a mysterious person. It didn't make any sense at the time _____ Conjunction _____ I guess that I was too _____ Adjective _____ to understand. It read...

"When will you realize that everything that you ever experienced was a lie? How many times have I given you and everyone else the same _____ Noun _____?"

At first I thought it was all just a silly joke that any person would do to a young girl but now I've finally realized, after two years, that everything actually was a lie. Everything started to fall into place on the day that I was given the freedom to go out and look at the cherry blossoms that were nearby my home.

I was _____ Verb - Base Form _____ sitting on the edge of the lake that was lined with the _____ Adjective _____ trees when I saw the Emperor of my country, Japan, come up to me. I _____ Adverb _____ stood up and _____ Verb - Base Form _____.

He smiled and motioned for me to sit down. He came over and sat _____ Preposition _____ next to me.

I didn't know why he had chosen me to sit _____ Preposition _____ to or why he didn't have any _____ Noun _____ with him but I just decided to be polite and not worry about it.

" May I ask what your name is?" _____ Pronoun _____ asked me.

" My name is Niko." I answered smiling back at _____ Pronoun _____.

" That's a wonderful name. It stands for 'smile', right?"

" Yes, _____ Pronoun _____."

" It's very _____ Adjective _____."

" Thank you."

Then

I realized why he sat next to me and why he was asking me these things. But I think it makes sense to just stay

Adverb about it. The real question is what was the warning? I'll just assume that I'll never know

Conjunction I really don't care. If it means something serious I guess I'll just have to treat everyday like it's my last. The thing is... is that a good thing?
