

The Plague

1. Noun
2. Pronoun
3. Adverb
4. Adjective
5. Interjection
6. Adverb
7. Shape
8. Conjunction
9. Adjective
10. Animal
11. Pronoun
12. Conjunction
13. Type Of Object
14. Adjective
15. Verb - Base Form
16. Verb - Present Ends In S
17. Preposition
18. Preposition
19. Interjection

The Plague

One day, a kid named Hunter caught a disease caused by an infected Noun. Pronoun caused Hunter to look grayish and have cuts all over his face and arms. Hunter walks around groaning, "Uuuuhhhhhh."

Soon after he caught the disease, Hunter Adverb spread it to a Adjective, chubby kid named Jackson by eating his leg.

Zombified Hunter and Jackson walk around Shrewsbury groaning, "interjection," as they try to find people to infect. The two Adverb eat off people's arms and legs, infecting them too. Before the anyone knows it, most of the town is infected. The zombies travel in groups shaped like shape, Conjunction they leave trails of Adjective blood behind. Even animals like Animal can get infected.

The last living people in the town try as hard as they can to stay alive. Pronoun barricade there houses with anything they have like couches. One of the town's last survivors is Adam, Conjunction he defends the rest of survivors with a type of object. But as the Adjective hordes of zombies keep on coming, more people are lost. When Adam becomes the last living human in Shrewsbury, he decides to Verb - Base Form for it. As Adam is running, he Verb - Present ends in S on a rock and falls Preposition. A big group of zombies pile Preposition him as Adam screams, "interjection." The zombies have taken over this town.