The Interview

Mr. Rudolph: "Good Morning _____. Today on the _____ Christmas show we will be interviewing an unknown person. _____ asking the unknown person some questions, the first person to call 373-993-7397 and tell us who this unknown person is will win a _____ trip around the world on a sleigh. _____ let's get started, my first question for you is do you have any pets and if _____ do how many?"

Unknown Person: "Yes, I have 9 _____ pets that can fly around the world in very little time."

Mr. Rudolph: "_____! That is very unique. My next question for you is what your basic routine is for a normal day?"

Unknown Person: "I start off by waking up _____ 6:00 and eating my normal breakfast of cookies and _____. Then I get _____ to the workshop and make sure my employees are all working hard and getting all the toys made. After checking up on them I mark everyone as naughty or nice. I also have many more jobs to do, _____ there are just too many to name."

Mr. Rudolph: "_____! It seems like you have a very busy schedule. My last question for you this fine night is have you ever been in a movie, been sung about in a song, _____ written about in a book?"

Unknown Person: "I am very glad you _____ that. I have been in very many movies and it always seems they make my cheeks too red and my beard/hair too white. I have also been recognized in books and songs. They usually describe me as having a round tummy and a long beard."

Mr.

Rudolph: "Thank you for joining us, and remember to call 373-993-7397 if you know who this unknown person is. We will be taking a short commercial break and when we come back we will see who the winner is."

Mr. Rudolph: "We are back and we have our winner. Please tell us your name."

Mrs. Clause: "My name is Mrs. Clause."

Mr. Rudolph: "Now, can you please tell everyone who this unknown person was."

Mrs. Clause: "The unknown person was the one and only Santa Clause and thank you for the Auto prize, even though I Auto in a sleigh all the time."

Mr. Rudolph: "Thank you for joining Auto and have a Merry, Merry Christmas."
