Joel-Peter Witkin Quotes

My first conscious recollection was when I was 6 years old. It happened on a Sunday when my mother was escorting my twin brother and me down the steps of the tenement where we lived. We were going to church.

While walking through the hallway to the entrance of the building, we heard an Adjective Noun mixed with Verb - Present Tense and Noun - Plural for help. The Noun had involved three cars, all with families in them. Somehow, in the Noun, I was no longer holding my mother's hand. At the place where I stood at the curb, I could see something rolling from one of the overturned cars. It stopped at the curb where I stood. It was the head of a Adjective girl. I bent down to touch the Noun, to ask it--but before I could touch it--someone carried me away.
