The magical tree trunk

One day a Adjective Michel was Noun to school, when he found a magical tree trunk . Then went in. This place was so beautiful in its own little way the Verb - Present ends in S was as green as a Christmas tree, the sky was as bright as me and the trees were of many Noun - Plural that danced like me. Some things about this place were very strange. There were good and bad Adjective - Ends in EST that flew over me what a fright to see. But I kepted to my feet nothing would stop me not even a creak . I kepted on going down the path I did. Then something Proper Noun me with the sharp little shins it was a bad witch I yelled something to scream about, for it grabbed me with fear. She took me to her castle where I twiched with Verb - Base Form nothing would stop her now not even a tear. In that Adverb castle I stood standing so quiet like a good boy should. The witch came back I'd wonderd what she would do ? She came to me Verb - Past Tense those sharp little claws lashed them out and took of my Proper Noun - Plural what a shock that gave me like a snake down my back. What would I do now should I lash back ? With a wand she which took out of her pocket with care she had cast a spell on me Adjective - Ends in EST to dispare. I was changed into a farie Verb - Present ends in ING like I saw on TV. Then the witch sent me some where, I was sent back to my world I would never see the real me I was sad in my heart I could never see my mom and dad again. Would this be a change or would I be left in a cage ? No one nose how to change him now . He is roming the street with regret in his eyes. Now all the little boy he is in discise.
