

How to Have Terrible Christmas

1. Pronoun
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Conjunction
5. Adverb
6. Verb - Base Form
7. Noun
8. Interjunction
9. Adjective
10. Adverb
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Preposition
13. Preposition
14. Pronoun
15. Conjunction
16. Interjunction

How to Have Terrible Christmas

_____ Pronoun is very easy to mess up everyone's favorite holiday, Christmas. Since _____ Noun is about presents and pretty decorations and being with family you wouldn't want to forget any of those things. Here is how to have an _____ Adjective Christmas. First off you forget to buy presents _____ Conjunction relatives and _____ Adverb knowing that you have very picky relatives you _____ Verb - Base Form around first to find an open _____ Noun and then you have to find the perfect present. You also have to make sure that you get back to your house in time to wrap the present before everyone arrives. _____ interjunction, another way to have a _____ Adjective Christmas is forgetting to buy food for the big Christmas dinner. So you wake _____ Adverb extra early and try to get the very _____ Verb - Past Tense over food to make the best last minute Christmas dinner that you possibly can, and then having to hurry up and whip something up _____ Preposition the relatives start arriving. That's not all, you can also ruin your Christmas _____ Preposition forgetting to invite your relatives and then trying to call them and see if they are available. _____ Pronoun could also forget to buy a nice Christmas tree _____ Conjunction you would have to buy the only tree left at the tree farm. Which of course would be a "Charlie Brown" tree. That's not the only way to ruin Christmas you could also be so stressed that you start using the wrong ingredients in your food. Such as using salt instead of sugar or sugar instead of flour, _____ interjunction! You could also forget how long to cook something and end up burning it. These are just some ways that you could completely ruin your Christmas.