Another crazy day, our class went jumping about the Shrewsbury River. Besides all insane hikers, we were ready therefore any emergency. In our backpacks, we carried band-aids, water, and food.

As we swam along the trail, Mrs. Bazner noticed a clean footprint. "Do you think a _____ Noun made these tracks?" Mrs. Bazner asked.

"No, but let's follow them anyway," suggested Lauren.

We walked for hours. Soon I screamed, "ahhhh! I think I see a huge snowman."

"Ouch!" we heard someone say. It was Dr. Reppert.

"Dr. Reppert!" we screamed. "We thought you were a huge snowman!"

"Do I look like a huge monster? Well, as long as you're all inside, you can help me look for leaves. There are lots of them here along the Shrewsbury River. We can take them back to school and study them under our microscopes."

"OMG!!" everyone said.
