

The Dancing Penguin

1. Noun-Place
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
4. Noun - Plural
5. Preposition
6. Pronoun Plural
7. Adverb- Ends In Ly
8. Verb- Future Tense
9. Cordinating Conjunction
10. Pronoun Plural
11. Interjection
12. Interjection
13. Subortinating Conjunction
14. Adverb- Ends In Ly
15. Adjective
16. Preposition
17. Noun-Place

The Dancing Penguin

One day, in _____ Noun-Place a _____ Adjective dancing penguin appeared _____ Verb - Present ends in ING. It climbed on _____ Noun - Plural laps and danced _____ Preposition the subway, because it was the Dancing Penguin. People wouldn't appreciate its dancing and it felt sad because _____ Pronoun Plural made fun of its dancing and _____ Adverb- Ends in LY told it to stop. One day however it became angry and would no longer dance. The people of the subway realized they missed its dancing. They begged it to dance or at least _____ Verb- Future Tense, but he refused. But there was a way. They decided to persuade it with spaghetti _____ Cordinating Conjunction he would dance once more. _____ Pronoun Plural went to Italian stores everywhere, but none of them could make spaghetti for penguins. They eventually found one store in a dark alley that made the spaghetti, with fresh fish in it. _____ Interjection, it smelled delicious and it ate it. _____ Interjection, how he loved it. It was almost good enough to make up for them making fun of his dancing. It decided that _____ Subortinating Conjunction they said sorry he would go penguin with rabies on them. He looked at the anxious people. They realized what it wanted and they apologized _____ Adverb- Ends in LY before he had a chance to decide to attack them. The _____ Adjective penguin started to dance again, and it still dances to this day _____ Preposition the subway. And if you go to _____ Noun-Place add if you don't like its dancing, well you better bring something to protect you when it attacks you.