

Rock Those Carols on Christmas Eve

1. Interjection
2. Interjection
3. Verb - Past Tense
4. Noun - Plural
5. Conjunction
6. Pronoun
7. Adverb
8. Adjective
9. Adjective
10. Preposition
11. Preposition
12. Preposition
13. Preposition
14. Adverb
15. Noun
16. Noun
17. Pronoun
18. Conjunction
19. Verb - Past Tense
20. Adjective

Rock Those Carols on Christmas Eve

"Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way! interjection, what fun it is to ride in a one horse open sleigh, interjection!" sang Rudolph the red nose reindeer. He went house to house and Verb - Past Tense families with little children. "O'holy night the Noun - Plural are brightly shining, it is the night of our dear saviors birth." children cheered with joy, as rudolph sang the song Conjunction peacefully. Pronoun moved so Adverb from the houses. "silent night holy night...Rudolph the Adjective nose reindeer had a very Adjective nose (like a light bulb!)....it came Preposition a midnight clear" he sang Preposition and Preposition and Preposition. He filled the town with joy. It came time to deliver the presents so Rudolph flew off singing Adverb, "away in the manger.. . little drummer boy... jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock!" Rudolph arrived to the north pole still singing with joy. Santa and the elves joined along. " Frosty the snowman was a joly happy sole with a corn cob Noun and a button nose" The songs echoed through the Noun, but Santa had to stop everyone and get to delivering presents. They Pronoun got ready then flew off with christmas cheer. "You better watch out, you better not cry, you better not pout, i'm telling you why, Conjunction Santa Clause is coming to town!!!!!!" Christmas gifts were Verb - Past Tense to every good girl and boy on that Adjective Christmas eve.