Rock Those Carols on Christmas Eve

1. Interjection _____

2. Interjection _____

3. Verb - Past Tense _____

4. Noun - Plural _____

5. Conjunction _____

6. Pronoun _____

7. Adverb _____

8. Adjective _____

9. Adjective _____

10. Preposition _____

11. Preposition _____

12. Preposition _____

13. Preposition _____

14. Adverb _____

15. Noun _____

16. Noun _____

17. Pronoun _____

18. Conjunction _____

19. Verb - Past Tense _____

20. Adjective _____

Rock Those Carols on Christmas Eve

"Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way! _____interjection_____, what fun it is to ride in a one horse open sleigh, _____interjection_____!" sang Rudolph the red nose reindeer. He went house to house and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ families with little children. "O'holy night the _____Noun - Plural_____ are brightly shining, it is the night of our dear saviors birth." children cheered with joy, as rudolph sang the song _____Conjunction_____ peacefully.

_____Pronoun_____ moved so _____Adverb_____ from the houses. "silent night holy night...Rudolph the _____Adjective_____ nose reindeer had a very _____Adjective_____ nose (like a light bulb!)....it came _____Preposition_____ a midnight clear" he sang _____Preposition_____ and _____Preposition_____ and _____Preposition_____. He filled the town with joy. It came time to deliver the presents so Rudolph flew off singing _____Adverb_____, "away in the manger..

. little drummer boy... jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock!" Rudolph arrived to the north pole still singing with joy. Santa and the elfs joined along. " Frosty the snowman was a joly happy sole with a corn cob _____Noun_____ and a button nose" The songs echoed through the _____Noun_____, but Santa had to stop everyone and get to delivering presents. They _____Pronoun_____ got ready then flew off with christmas cheer. "You better watch out, you better not cry, you better not pout, i'm telling you why, _____Conjunction_____ Santa Clause is coming to town!!!!!!" Christmas gifts were _____Verb - Past Tense_____ to every good girl and boy on that _____Adjective_____ Christmas eve.