More stories at WordBlanks.com

Paul D. West Saves the Day!

1. Adjective _____
2. Verb _____
3. Noun _____
4. Noun - Plural _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Noun _____
8. Location _____
9. Proper Noun _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Noun _____
14. Full Name Of A Person _____
15. Noun _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Noun _____

Paul D. West Saves the Day!

One morning, the students of Paul D. West made a _____Adjective_____ discovery. The media center panther was missing! Ms. Drummer's class decided to _____Verb_____ as detectives and solve the case of the missing panther.

First, the students searched the media center for clues. The students looked at the _____Noun_____ where the panther normally sat. The students used _____Noun - Plural_____ to examine to location closer and saw a few of the panther's _____Adjective_____ hairs. They found _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ fingerprints and footprints leading toward door. The students followed the trail to _____Location_____ where they discovered _____Proper Noun_____ waiting for them. S/he told the students that s/he had seen the kidnapper. He was _____Adjective_____ with _____Adjective_____ hair and a _____Adjective_____ shirt. She told the students that the kidnapper was eating a _____Noun_____ so they could follow the trail of crumbs to the panther.

The students walked all the way to location and suddenly they saw the kidnapper. It was _____Full Name of a Person_____! The students quickly rescued the panther.

"Why did you take our _____Noun_____?" they asked.

The kidnapper cried. "I'm sorry. He was so _____Adjective_____ and I just wanted my own panther. Can I make it up to you?"

"Okay," the students said. "We'll forgive you as long as you buy us each a _____Noun_____." The kidnapper agreed and they all decided to be friends again.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.