

Championship Basketball Game

1. Auto
2. Pronoun
3. Preposition
4. Conjunction
5. Adjective
6. Pronoun
7. Adjective
8. Adjective
9. Noun - Plural
10. Adverb
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Proper Noun
13. Proper Noun
14. Proper Noun
15. Adverb
16. Verb - Past Tense
17. Conjunction
18. Preposition
19. Adjective
20. Pronoun

Championship Basketball Game

Today is a big day for Auto. He has practiced hard all season long for this chance. Pronoun woke Preposition, went downstairs, Conjunction had cereal for breakfast with a cup of orange juice. The game started at 8:00 that night. Josh got dressed in his Adjective uniform. He is number 38. It has always been Pronoun Adjective and Adjective number. It was almost lunch time. Before games Josh always eats Noun - Plural. After he finished off 2 whole boxes he ran downstairs to play PlayStation. It was Adverb fun. It was almost time for Josh and his mom to get going for the game. His mom Verb - Past Tense and they met in the car.

They were on Proper Noun Street they could see Proper Noun Park, home of the Wolverines. He got out of the car and saw Proper Noun Jordan who was there to see their game! Josh and his teammates were Adverb exited. His mom Verb - Past Tense him good-bye Conjunction he ran Preposition the court Adjective to warm-up. Pronoun shot the ball and then all of his vision started to fade because that is when Josh woke up.