Twas the Night before winter break

1. Adjective _____

Twas the Night before winter break

Twas the night before winter break, when all through the nest

Not a student was stirring, not even the best.

The grade reports were uploaded to power school with care,

In hopes that our parents would soon see them there.

The Raiders were nestled all snug in their beds,

While visions of testing were still in their heads.

I dreamed about the tests we took all day

And if I failed what my parents would say.

I walked into class willing and ready

So excited I could not hold my pencil steady

My teacher opened a can of soda to hear the fizz

As I started to take this _____Adjective_____ quiz.

I could not focus on the paper in front of me

I waited for the bell, so I could flee.

All of a sudden I heard a sound from the roof

And

it sounded like the puttering of a hoof.

I jumped up, even though my teacher said stay

I began to climb up the side of LVE.

On the top of the building is where all my teachers lay

And they were hooked up to the front of a sleigh.

I have been waiting for something like this for a long time

A teacher-powered sleigh for Christmas is mighty fine.

I hopped in the back of the sleigh like it was a game

I whistled, and shouted, and called them by name.

Now Kraus now Sager now Marin and you all

On Mekelburg on McCain on Uheling even though you're too tall.

I told them to get to all the girls and boys

So we can deliver all of these toys.

Just when I thought I was having a ball

The whole sleigh started to twist, turn, and fall.

I

got scared and ready for the crash and sting

But just then my alarm clock started to ring.

As I looked around toys were all I could see and feel

That's when I knew that my dream had to be real.

I had the best night, how could it be

It all had to happen at LVE.

Now I can enjoy the rest of my break

With lots of good times and memories to make.

Hanging with family and friends is always dandy

And I am sure to eat a lot of Christmas candy.

Whether your break will be all hectic and crazy

Or if you will just sit around and be lazy.

The final bell has rang, and it is time to run

Happy winter break to all, and to all, have fun
