

Surviving the zombie apocalypse

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Verb
6. Verb
7. Conjunction
8. Conjunction
9. Pronoun
10. Pronoun

Surviving the zombie apocalypse

One day _____^{Noun} and his _____^{Noun} were exploring the _____^{Adjective} woods and saw a suspicious man with a _____^{Adjective} bag. Tyler said "why is that man carrying a _big__ trash bag like that" they followed the man to a cabin in the middle of no where and it was getting dark. The man walked into the house and Tyler and his friend __Kyle__ walked around to the window and saw the man open the trash bag and a unconscious man came out of the trash bag. The man started to _____^{verb} _____ the unconscious guy we saw a name on the wall that said Jason house then. Jason turned and looked at us and groaned.. Then we ran and people started to come out of the ground and chase us. We found a house so we ran in and locked the __big__ door and we found a closet with weapons in it. So we _____^{verb} all the food and weapons we could carry by the next day we trained _____^{Conjunction} we climbed a __huge__ Hill and saw __Baltimore__ City on fire. The next day we tried to explore the ruined city to try to look for survivors we found only our friend from school __Jimmy__ so we got him _____^{Conjunction} we started to explore the city more. Our neighborhood was in ruins I said to myself "i should of never ran away i never got to say goodbye to my mom this is all my fault". Then zombies started to pour out of everywhere we had some close encounters. We shot every zombie till they died again we finally got away after 4 grueling hours of death. We got pushed into the inner city and we climbed on top of a Mcdonalds. We saw Military helicopters we tried to signal them but they never saw us then in the middle of the night another enormous group came out and we just tried to let them go away but i was filled with to much grief and i killed them all. I did not sleep at all that night the next day me and Kyle went to go get food and ammunition. Kyle told me that the day before _____^{Pronoun} saw his grandmother get eaten by the group that's why

Pronoun went phsyco.