Christmas Mirical

Once upon a time there was a Noun named Name who lived in Noun who always dreamed of traveling to Noun . Day and night he took out his map of Noun and circled the states that he wanted to go to. When it was Christmas Eve, Name even went to the Noun to send a Noun to Name about traveling to Noun . That night as he was Adjective asleep there was a spark from his Noun that suddenly woke him up. To his sight he saw Noun and a Adjective Adjective dude in it! It WAS Name . Name went out and Name took him on his Noun . Name took Name all over Noun and brought him back home! Name was really Adjective that night!
