Secret Friend

Secret           Noun - Plural           are really fun. Make them something everyday so it leads up to a great

          Adjective           surprise on           Proper Noun          . When you have a Secret           Noun          , you           Verb - Base          

          Form           their gifts into their           Verb - Base Form           but they don't know who its from. And, you also have a Adjective                     Noun           who does the same thing to you and you're the           Adjective           one. Who knows, this is probably a           Noun           too. And your           Verb - Base Form           Friend made it for you with hard work from scratch.
