Meaghan's Bridal Shower

My name is           Proper Noun          . I have known the bride since           Noun          . When I heard Meaghan and Mark first began dating I was           Verb - Past Participle          . When I found out they were engaged to be married, I           Verb - Past Tense           then I           Verb - Past Tense          ! I wish the happy couple lots of           Noun           for many years to come. My really brilliant advice? Don't forget to           Verb           before and after you           Verb - Non                     3rd Person Singular Present          , and especially after you           Verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present          . Meaghan you should always           Verb           Mark's           Noun           and Mark you should always           Verb           to Meaghan's           Noun - Plural          . Best wishes to the happy couple!
