How The Chapmans Get Their Trees

No Christmas can be really (adjective) unless you have a/an _____Noun_____ tree in your (room). If you live in the city, like Meg and Mo, you will see many vacant (plural noun) filled with hundreds of (plural noun) for sale. If you live in the country, like Elizabeth and Carter, you can get your own (noun) right out of the woods! Ask Wid to go out with a/an (noun) and (noun) and when you see a/an (adjective) tree you like, tell him to chop it down and bring it back to your (noun). But first, ask Rita to make sure the tree is very (color). Nothing looks worse than a/an (another color) tree, just ask Anjeli, she knows. Then you can ask Will and Clara to put it in a (noun) and decorate it with (number) (plural noun). If you follow these directions, Grammy and Papa will be (adjective) .
