More stories at WordBlanks.com

WashU Bunny, Part 3

1. Adverb _____
2. Wash U Student _____
3. Year _____
4. Noun _____
5. Noun _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Nationality _____
8. Adverb _____
9. Noun - Plural _____
10. Game _____
11. Adjective _____
12. City _____
13. Noun _____
14. Noun - Plural _____
15. Adverb _____
16. Animal _____
17. Verb - Past Tense _____
18. Adverb _____
19. Number _____
20. Noun - Plural _____
21. Noun - Plural _____
22. Verb - Past Tense _____

WashU Bunny, Part 3

The police Lieutenant _____Adverb_____ entered and ushered the group in: a few police officers, Chancellor Wrighton, _____Wash U Student_____, Class of _____Year_____, _____Noun_____ and editor of _____Noun_____ Life, the _____Adjective_____ student newspaper; a few _____nationality_____ groundskeepers _____Adverb_____ wielding _____Noun - Plural_____; some drunk Sophomores who joined in thinking they were playing _____game_____; and a _____Adjective_____ pre-Frosh from _____City_____. The building smelled of _____Noun_____, and everyone quickly became frightened. The Chancellor handed around Glow _____Noun - Plural_____ to the group and they _____Adverb_____ crept in. "Here Bunny, Bunny, Bunny," whispered the pre-frosh, who thought they were chasing a real _____Animal_____.

"We're hunting wabbits," whispered a drunk Sophomore, and then _____Verb - Past Tense_____ on a potted plant. The student journalist snapped a photo in the dark and the flash _____Adverb_____ lit up the room for _____Number_____ seconds. The hallway was splattered with _____Noun - Plural_____, _____Noun - Plural_____ had been tossed everywhere, and the whole group _____Verb - Past Tense_____.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.