Vocaloid Poem

There once were a girl

And Female Vocaloid was her name

One day she'd thought she'd play a Adjective game

She snuck up on a boy male vocaloid, is what he's called

And as for the trick, well he's in for a fall

You see, she dug a hole

With food it was full

But under the Same food was harder than coal

Come here! Said same Female Vocaloid

Same male vocaloid came in a run

What same Female Vocaloid was about to do was quite fun

Same male vocaloid jumped for the Same food

But underneath was a brick

And

Same male vocaloid

cried really hard, cause it hit his d- well....you know
