AB: "I have to decide when I'm going to Verb. I think we have it pretty much mapped out, but it's based on me and my Noun and how I'm Verb - Present ends in ING. But we're progressing because I'm not Verb - Present Tense anything. We'll continue to do that. I'm Adjective. I don't get a Noun. I don't get any Noun - Plural. It's Adjective."

DCDT: "What's the next basketball stage?"

AB: "I have no idea. It'd still be Adjective, so probably Adjective Noun, going Adverb and Adverb. I'm still Verb - Present Tense on that Noun, taking the Noun off. So the first step would be putting that Repeat Last Noun back on." Delaware County Daily Times
