Congrats on the Job!

Dear David,

Congratulations on getting a job! Since I have not heard your voice in about two months, I have no idea what this new employment might be. However, as your Adjective - Ends in EST friend, I offer you my Adjective - Ends in EST congratulations and Adjective support. I am sure it will be! It makes sense that a company,, or other would want you to work for them because you are so talented,,,, and creative. Most of all, you are You, like, are obviously the best candidate for any job. In fact, they will probably want to you a lot to keep you around.
Maybe they'll even offer you a six -digit! Especially if they are initially hiring you as an unpaid Also, a job always looks good on a resume or when you are trying to get a different,, job later. Graduate schools also love seeing that you have experience working in the sector. So I think you are setting yourself up for a future.
Again,up on getting hired! I can't wait to hear about the projects you work on and the world problems you solve.
Love,

The
