Congrats on the Job!

Dear David,

Congratulations on getting a job! Since I have not heard your _____Adjective_____ voice in about _____Number_____ months, I have no idea what this new _____Adjective_____ employment might be. However, as your _____Noun_____ friend, I offer you my _____Verb_____ congratulations and _____Adjective_____ support. I am sure it will be _____Adjective_____! It makes sense that a company, _____Noun_____, or other _____Noun_____ would want you to work for them because you are so talented, _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____, and creative. Most of all, you are _____Adjective_____. You, like _____Proper Noun_____, are obviously the best candidate for any job . In fact, they will probably want to _____Verb_____ you a lot to keep you around. Maybe they'll even offer you a _____Number_____ -digit salary! Especially if they are initially hiring you as an unpaid _____Noun_____. Also, a job always looks good on a resume or _____Noun_____ when you are trying to get a different, _____Adjective - Comparative_____, job later. Graduate schools also love seeing that you have experience working in the _____Adjective_____ sector. So I think you are setting yourself up for a _____Adjective_____ future.

Again, _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____ -up on getting hired! I can't wait to hear about the _____Adjective_____ projects you work on and the _____Verb - Present Tense_____ world problems you solve.

Love,

The
