Valentine's Day in Mrs. Fischer's Class

The students in Mrs. Fischer's First Grade Class were excited for Valentine's Day. All students were making valentine boxes out of color and color Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural . Mrs. Fischer had given them many art lessons so they were good at made Valentine to give out and some students were also busy at home making Noun - Plural to bring to class for the others to eat. The day of the big Noun finally arrived. The students hurried into the classroom and greeted Mrs. Fischer with a Mr. Fladeland prayed a short Noun over the intercom and then the party began. They played Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural and ate a lot of Noun - Plural. It was a Valentine's Noun to remember.
