A Whimsical Journey

My Dear Olivia Liboiron,

I hope that you are doing well and that the _____ Adjective bundle of joy growing inside you will let you eat full meals. How are you and Lance? Is he picking out a future _____ Noun in case you have a boy?

As you know, I have joined Youth With A Mission as an _____ Noun _____ Noun in the Mission Adventures Program. Today, I am writing to build a team of people to invest in the work that I do.

Mission Adventures was the program that had gotten me _____ Adjective on ministry and mission work. The leaders have greatly influenced my life and had been the ones who constantly _____ Verb - Base Form for me to do my _____ Noun. Recently, as a girl asked in the last day of MA for my contact info, I realized that "WHOA" I am a leader, and people look up to me. What a _____ Adjective feeling. I totally remember asking to keep in contact with Montse in Ensenada, and talking to Will after the New Orleans mission trip. It is such a _____ Adjective thing to be on the other side of it all. I am happy that I am learning to ropes, even though I feel like I have rope burn all over my _____ Noun - Plural sometimes, and I am excited to prepare for the loads of youth coming into Vancouver in the spring.

Currently, I am in the process of raising $500.00 per month in order to continue my work in urban missions. I am currently a nanny for a local family in exchange for room and board. My other expenses are approximately:

Giving- $50.00

transportation- $100.00

medical- $50.00

Personal Care - $100.00

Support Raising- $25.00

Savings- $50.00

entertainment/gifts/misc- $75.00

Missions Training-

Total: $500.00

I am looking for 10 families or individuals who will support me $50/month.

Olivia and Lance, would you please prayerfully consider if you could invest $50 a month to partner with me in helping empower and educate young adults in urban missions. All gifts are processed through YWAM Canada Project Funding office and are tax receipt-able.

I will be in contact with you in the next two weeks about your consideration. I hope all is going well for you both,

and are enjoying the new year!

All the best,

-Jillian
