eating contest

Once upon a time, there was a princess and her name was           Proper Noun           . She loved to eat LOTS AND LOTS OF FOOD.

She ate so much food that she became very FAT!! So one day, she went for a           Noun           and saw a poster. It said " TACO EATING CONTEST," she knew she had to sign up! So she went to the           Noun           where the contest was held and sat in her           Noun          , ready to chow down all those tacos. The man said ready, set,           Proper Noun          ! And off they went eating all the food they could fit in their mouths. She was in the lead by ten tacos!! She ate and ate and ate, she even beat the           Noun           kid!! She had won!! She was still eating some tacos that the losers had left behind when she had received her           Noun          . Then, she went home ate a few more tacos, a           Noun           or two, and a couple of           Noun - Plural          , and had wonderful dreams of           Noun - Plural          !
