Let Women Pray

Dear, In 1978, the First Presidency made an official statement allowing women to in Sacrament Meeting. In the statement, said, "there is no scriptural prohibition against sisters in any meetings they attend." Since 1984, women have been asked to speak in General Conference. We applaud that change, and now ask for those words to be reconsidered and more broadly applied.
In 2013, we hope to see a woman in General Conference. We appeal to the leadership of our Church to show their support for by recognizing the ability and worthiness of LDS women to represent their church in prayer. In the history of the Church, members have presented ideas and to Church leaders and asked them to pray about them. Without these Noun - Plural wouldn't be in place. Similar to our Adjective ancestors, we are here with a real, heartfelt concern, and we pray that our church leaders will consider our plea. Please let women at the upcoming General Conference as a symbol of within our church. Sincerely, Your Name
