The Story of St. Valentine

The Roman Emperor Claudius II was Verb - Present ends in ING many wars. He wanted a Adjective army, but Adjective men did not want to be Noun - Plural. Claudius thought the men wanted to stay home to be with their wives and children instead of Verb - Present ends in ING to fight wars.

Claudius thought of an Adjective solution to his problem. He Verb - Past Tense to Verb - Base Form all marriages! No one in all of Rome could get Verb - Base Form. Claudius thought that if the men couldn't get Verb - Past Tense, the men would Verb - Base Form the women and want to be Noun - Plural.

Valentine, who was a Noun, believed that Noun needed to get married. He thought that if they were not Verb - Base Form, they would be tempted to Verb - Base Form by Verb - Present ends in ING together without being married. So he Adverb and Adverb married couples anyway! He Verb - Past Tense the weddings in Adjective places, so the Roman Noun - Plural would not find out.

But they did find out. Valentine was Verb - Past Tense and brought before the Emperor. The Emperor thought Valentine was a Adjective spoken and Adjective young man, and Verb - Past Tense him to stop being a Proper Noun and become a Adjective Roman. Valentine would not Verb - Base Form his beliefs, and he Verb - Past Tense. He was sent to Noun until he could be Verb - Past Tense. While he was in Noun, he sent out Noun to his friends and asked to be Verb - Past Tense for by writing Remember your Valentine.

Valentine was Verb - Past Tense on the 14th or the 24th of February in the year 269 or 270. We Verb - Base Form Valentine's Day on February 14th in honor of St. Valentine.
