Mamphela Ramphele

Fellow Proper	African citiz	zens, I am here t	oday to	you to jo	oin me on a journey to build the country	of our dreams. I ask th	nose of you of m	ny generation: let us	s cast our minds back to	o the run up to 1	994 and the mon	ments immediat	tely following the dawn of	of our freedom. Do	youour	r patience and qu	uiet dignity as wo	e waited in long	g queues to cast our very first votes as citiz	zens of a free South	Proper Noun	_? Do you remen	nber how you c	choked with emotion and had goose bumps	s as you made your ver	y first cross on t	the ballot? Do yo	ou remember the	e tears of joy and relief when we watched	d our first President, R	olihlahla Mande	ela, being honour	red with a fly-pa	ast by the air-force that was to have its fi	rst democratically elec	ted Noun	in chief? Do	you remember l	how Madiba inspired us to action in these	words of his inaugural	l address?
