Mamphela Ramphele

Fellow	Proper Noun	African citizens, I ar	n here today to	Verb	you to join me	on a journey to build the c	country of our o	dreams. I ask those of y	ou of my generation	n: let us cast ou	r minds back to the run	up to 1994 and tl	he moments	immediately fo	llowing the dawn of our freedo	om. Do you	our patienc	e and quiet dignit	y as we wait	ed in long queu	es to cast our very first votes	as citizens of a	a free South Proper N	oun ? Do you	remember l	now you choked	with emotion and had goose	bumps as you	made your very first cr	oss on the ballot?	Do you ren	nember the tears	of joy and relief when we v	watched our fir	st President, Rolihlahla	Mandela, being l	honoured wi	th a fly-past by	the air-force that was to hav	ve its first demo	ocratically elected	Noun in chie	f? Do you re	emember how M	ladiba inspired us to action i	n these words	of his inaugural address	5?
