More stories at WordBlanks.com

Rome

1. Proper Noun _____
2. Noun _____
3. Noun _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Noun _____
9. Noun _____
10. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun _____

Rome

One day there was a boy named _____Proper Noun_____ who was visiting Rome. _____Noun_____ is from a small town in southern Italy, and has never been to Rome before. He came to Rome because he wanted to see all the history and sites the city has to offer.

_____Noun_____ was told of this really _____Adjective_____ restaurant to eat at, and while looking at his map he realized he was going to climb this _____Adjective_____ staircase to get there. He noticed that there were a lot of people there climbing the stairs too. He though it was funny, why would anyone want to put themselves through all that. But little did he know, he was _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ up the Spanish Steps!

After eating a _____Adjective_____ meal, his next place to see was the collaseum. He took the _____Noun_____ because it was the easiest and cheapest way to get around. When he got off, and opened the doors to go outside, he was amazed. The Collaseum was right there! He couldn't wait to tour the inside. _____Noun_____ was interested in everything, from them architecture to the old artifacts that were put on display. He began to image himself as a gladiator _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ people and animals like they used to do back then. He also learned that sometimes the Collaseum would be filled with _____Noun_____ and they would have Naval fights.

After seeing so much in Rome, _____Noun_____ decided it was time to go home. He took the train home, where his family was waiting for him with dinner.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.