Adventures in Lady Love

Once there was a Noun from New York who met a Noun from Connecticut on a Adjective adventure in New Jersey. They immediately hit it off and became best friends and pocket Noun , always wanting to be near each other. After a night out on the town and some Verb - Present ends in S , they were long distance but yet inseparable. They both had dreams of moving to Los Angeles and one day they packed the car and had a Adjective journey on the road headed west. They had Adjective times and Adjective times, traveled north to Adjective Noun and south to San Diego. They spent days at the Noun , nights smoking Noun , and always had a blast hanging with each other. They snuggled every night and missed each other when they were apart. They loved each other too much that the pressure became Adjective and they took a break. The Noun from New York didn't want to let the Connecticut Noun go, so she asked her out every day until she said yes, until finally, on February 22, the lady finally said yes. And they lived happily ever after.
