A Sight in Camp

A SIGHT in camp in the day-break and and,
As from my tent I emerge so early, sleepless,
As slow I walk in the cool air, the path near by the hospital tent,
Three forms I see on stretchers lying, brought out there, untended lying,
Over each the blanket spread, ample woollen blanket,
and heavy blanket, folding, covering all.
, I halt, and silent stand;
Then with light fingers I from the face of the nearest, the first,
just lift the blanket:
Who are you, elderly man so and and , with color hair,
and flesh all sunken about the eyes?
Who are you, my dear comrade? 10
Then to the second I stepAnd who are you, my child and darling?
Who are you. Adjective boy, with cheeks yet Verb - Present ends in ING ?

Then to the thirda face nor child, nor old, very calm, as of beautiful ivory;
Young man, I think I know youI think this face of yours is the face of the Christ himself;
Quality of Life and Quality of Life, and brother of all, and here again he lies
