This story begins with two boys at a lake house with their parents for a fun week. They started with by going swimming to find cool treasures under the lake. They found a weird looking thing under there so brought it up to the surface. It was a lamp when they washed it. They rubbed it to think a genie would come out but nothing happen and a couple hours later they heard a loud noise and it was the lamp. It shacked and rolled all over the place. And finally the lamp stopped and a genie came out he was tall and had a loud voice. He asked them what they wanted the most. The first boy wanted a horse and the genie gave it to him but their was a catch the horse was old and could not walk. So the first _____ Noun _____ did not want it. The second boy wished for the horse to be better because they both liked horses. So the genie granted his wish. The horse was better but their was a catch the horse was just a new born calf. But they where ok with that because they how to take care of an animal because they both live on a farm. THE END!!!
