The ChaiNamics

Once upon a Noun, in the Adjective, Adjective land of University of Proper Noun, there lived an Adverb good-looking and not at all vulgar Noun called The ChaiNamics. One Sunday afternoon, something really Adjective happened. Caryn, the Chais' wonderful Noun director, and Brian, the equally as wonderful Proper Noun, showed up to rehearsal, but everyone else was missing! "Verb my balls!" Verb - Past Tense Caryn. "Where my biddies at?" Verb - Past Tense Brian. So, the two went on a top-secret totally Adjective Noun mission that included a super Adjective theme song and montage, in order to find out where the Noun everybody was. After all, it was Sunday! Everyone probably stayed in their rooms and Verb - Past Participle all of Saturday night and would have had no problem getting up Adjective and Adverb. Anyway, eventually, Caryn and Brian found all the Chais because they are, like, super sleuths NBD. Here's where they were: Kate Adverb went to the wrong room for rehearsal, because this time, it was not just her face. Dana walked by baby Noun - Plural on the way to rehearsal and got Adverb distracted by their Noun. Some random person replaced Alex's dorm room door with a Adjective bar of chocolate, and she refused to touch it. Steve was busy Adverb rescuing Noun - Plural in distress. Sam O was struggling to find a place to park her car. Eadoh received a Bat signal and unfortunately had to go save the Noun and Noun. Adam saw a hawk on the way to rehearsal, and long story short, his Noun Verb - Past Tense there. Sam Susson had to run back to Proper Noun Campus because she Verb - Past Tense her boots and cats and. Jeff was busy looking into off-campus Noun - Plural on Avenue
