

gfd

1. Verb - Base Form

gfd

Zach was [Verb - Base Form]. He had be [verb - ending in "ing"] his whole [noun] for this moment. As they walked across the [noun], Kat paused a moment to gaze at the [adjective] [noun]. " This is so [adjective]" She said. Zach smiled, he knew this was the moment. He [verb - past tense], then got down on his [body part]. Zach picked up a [noun] and started to etch into the [adjective] [noun]. "What are you doing?" Kat asked. Zach looked at her and spoke " I am [verb - ending in "ing"] a [noun]". His hands were shaky. "Let me write it. Tell me what to write." Kat said as she grabbed the [noun]. She [verb - past tense] beside him and he began to speak "Roses are [adjective], [plural noun] are blue. I'll be player [number], if you be player [number]". Puzzled by the words, Kat turned to see Zach on his [body part] with a [noun] in his hand. "Will you marry me?" He asked. Kat started to [verb]. "Yes, I will marry you!" Kat sobbed and they [verb - past tense] on the side of the [noun].