WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW?

There is much debate about when their Noun actually began, or, for that matter, why, but for better or worse, it happened. And probably these two Noun - Plural are the most surprised out of anyone. It's a unique relationship that blooms from Feeling. But that's how this one started. Though this story can't start at the very beginning of this friendship, because that will always remain unknown, it can start before that:

When Melanie thought it would be a Adjective idea to take this girl's cell Noun. And she didn't just take it, she brought it home to her own house. This girl who she didn't know nearly well enough to know what an Adjective idea this actually was. This girl is Feeling the queen of communication and the thought of her being without her cell phone now is simply Adjective to imagine. I mean, she won Adjective - Superlative gossip as her senior superlative and you can count on her to know everything and everyone EVERYWHERE you go, in fact most of the people you meet on a daily basis are probably her Relative - Plural. And, as it turns out, she did not find this prank funny at all. In fact, she was Adjective. But somehow these two managed to go from that, to two Food - Plural who will surely be friends for Amount of Time. Over the years these girls have made countless cute and rude memories.

From dating two of the G-est Bs in all the land, to getting lost Unit of Measurement and Same Unit of Measurement from Name of a Town, to bringing not so smart products through A Transportation Hub security on the way to AND from the Country, to the time that they weren't even friends anymore, and instead were strangers on the street. Melanie loves this girl so much she rarely ever wishes this Noun was dead in a ditch. They've always been there for each other, whether it's a hysterically Verb - Present ends

phone call, a drunken voicemail at 8 in the morning on a week day, dumping some Restaurant trash on a frenemy's Noun, or threatening to get their other BFF Osama Bin Last Name of a Person to handle a situation. But, that's besides the point, because as this Adjective time in Melanie's life approaches, she is so excited to drag her friend around on wedding Noun - Plural all day every day like this friend has done to Melanie SO many times in the past.

So, Full Name of a Person will you please do me the honor of being my Noun as I Verb -
