Please Verb - Base Form Leon 1	from school today. I am afraid to tell you he is very sick. He has caught a serious case of the chicken pox. We	were eating dinner last night when we realized he was getting sick. At first, he was scratching, and then he could	I not stop.
He might be back tomorrow, but I w	vill not know until the morning. I will call you when I am sure. We may need the school to send his work home.
It must be contagious because his sis	ster and I both have caught this nasty sickness too! We were awake all night scratching!
