Btch in flipflps midget in heals

Melanie has always been Noun. It's one of the things she always wished she could change about Pronoun. But, alas, that is not a possibility. So imagine Melanie's delight when she joined her sorority at Noun to find out she would now be sisters with someone even shorter than her! A true miracle for sure.

This midget has been a friend of Melanie's from that day she held her Part of Body at their formal bid, and there's no doubt they'll be friends forever. Honestly, Melanie has Verb - Past Tense this midget a LOT over the years, she and other pledge class members put this midget in the Noun, sewed food onto her body part - plural, burst in on her in the shower and whipped her with a wet Noun (which I now a favorite video on many Nationality porn sites), broke her Shoe (though that was actually an accident) and she rarely ever puts this midget into her Noun picture. They've shared many adventures together whether it was a tour of the local Pittston Restaurant and a certain person's house, so Melanie could plan her Verb - Present ends in ING, reminiscing on how Adjective they used to be, or the Noun bar tour they went on in matching/opposite Color and Color American apparel outfits. Plus, Melanie will never forget the time when this midget made out with twin Relative - Plural at the same time in City! Though Melanie doesn't think this midget has always made great choices, from choosing to always wear Shoes - Plural, to getting a family plan perhaps a little too soon, to forgetting to give Melanie a satisfactory stuffed food recipe to try out, Melanie has many reasons to be thankful for this midget friend. She always tagged her Noun - Plural when Melanie didn't feel up to it, dressed up as Melanie's Noun when she insisted she must be a CEO to a frat party, was the only other senior who would Verb - Past Tense in all of the sorority activities during their last semester, freaked out over many a book and TV shows, least of all 50 Shades of Color and The Hunger Noun - Plural, and joined Melanie and their other cheap roommate in choosing to sit in the Noun in their senior year apartment until the very last moment because their electric bill was simply Adjective. Basically these two are a great pair, which Melanie plans to take full advantage of as she gets closer and closer to her big day. Oh, Noun in Shoes - Plural and midget in Shoes - Plural, thank god you're here, Relative - Possessive been rped!

So, Full Name of a Person, will you please do me the honor of being my Noun as I Verb -
